

THE INTERNATIONAL SUMMER COURSE PROGRAM 2018

Contributed by Administrator
Jumat, 27 Juli 2018

THE INTERNATIONAL SUMMER COURSE PROGRAM 2018

The International Summer Course Program for Agriculture and Ecosystem Resilience to Environmental Disaster toward Regional Sustainability will be held on September 2-10, 2018 in Indonesia. This event is organized by Graduate School and Center for Disaster Studies of Bogor Agricultural University in association with Ibaraky University, University of Ryukyus and Tokyo University of Agriculture and Technology. The Program is arranged to understand regional sustainability by means of multifaceted research of disaster prevention, agriculture and ecosystem resilience from disaster and social-technology disruption. All students who wish to participate in this summer course have the opportunity to participate in the winter course in Japan which is a series of summer course activities. Deadline date for registration: August 20, 2018. General Requirements 1. Graduate Students 2. Able to communicate in English well 3. Minimum GPA of 3.25 4. The abstract of research maximum 1 sheets A4 size (see the attached file). Special for abstract please send via email to dedenmatra@apps.ipb.ac.id cc l_tono@yahoo.com before August 10, 2018. 5. Letter of approval / recommendation from the Head of Study Program 6. Submit registration Form (Registration Form) 7. Registration Fee IDR 750.000 (local students), IDR 1.200.000 (foreign students) 8. Please submit the requirements to Division of Collaboration and Public Relations, Graduate School (CP: Fatma / Anna 0251-8628448/8423855) or Center for Disaster Studies (CP: Nia 0251-8319169) Abstract Guidance Abstract Template Poster Template Flyer Summer Course